OUITEAU HANGED

In accordance with the sentence passed Guiteau, the murderer of President Garfield, paid the penalty of his crime on the gallows last Friday. The execution took place a little after noon in th United States jail at Washington, and witnessed by a few hundred people
He claimed to the last to be "God's man" in which idea he was doubtless honest. His conduct on the gallows, in which there was not a symptom of fear, must be attributed to

That Guiteau was a perfectly sane man few people believe, the only question being as to the extent of his responsibility for the death of Garfield.

But that is neither here nor there now -he is dead, and none of us want to hear any more about Guiteau.

From the fuss that the civil ser Congressional Committee to government employes, asking for contributions to the campaign fund, one would naturally sup-pose that political assessments were never heard of before, while in fact the custom has been in vogue for a great many years, and practiced by all parties Such assessments are necessary to keep party machinery running. Campaigns cannot be carried on without money, and where shall the managers look for it except among those who are indebted to the party for their living? And besides, when a man accepts a position in the civil service he does so with the clear understanding that when called on he shall contribute his share towards the payment of campaign expenses. He understands this perfectly well, and takes have never heard of a man refusing good place under government because of conditions. They are a part of the ract he makes with his party, but the civil service reformers would have him ignore his obligations and go back on his contract. They would teach government employes to be dishonest. But it is probable the contributions will go on all

Quite early in the forenoon great crowds of people repaired to the banks of Horn Pond to witness the "exercises of the day" then and there to come off.

These consisted of Potato Race, Doughnut Race, Sack Race, 3-Legged Race, 3 Miles Go-as-you-please, 100 yards Dash, Pie-Eating Race, and all sorts of Aquatic Sports.

There were a great many entries for the stakes which ranged all the way from fifty cents to a dollar and a half, but more especially full were the lists in the Doughnut and Pie contests. It was observed that the newspapers were numerously and ably represented in these two, and if we hadn't lost the store occupied by them on Main street, our note-book we should be able to record the and go to Lowell. names of several distinguished editors who carried off prizes in these spirited and interesting matches.

My last week's report from here was full of errors according to the testimony of the reporter for the Woburn Advertiser. Brother, first cast the beam out of thine own eye, that thou may'st see clear to pluck the mote from thy brother's eye. Perhaps this is not the precise language of the text but it is near enough to it to be clearly understood.

Messrs. Seabury & Johnson, Manufactur-ing Chemists, 21 Platt St., New York: Gentlemen: -For the past few years we have sold various brands of Porous Plasters. Physicians and the Public prefer Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster to all others. We consider them one of the very few reliable household remedies worthy of confidence. They are superior to all external use.

Benson's Capcine Plaster is a genuine armaceutical product, of the highest rder of merit, and so recognized by hysicians and druggists.

When other remedies fail get a Benson's Capcine Plaster.

You will be disappointed if you use cheap Plasters, Liniments, Pads or Elec-trical Magnetic toys.

When Mary Clairmont's engagement was proclaimed to the world, there ened a general expression of surprise. Miss Clairmont was only one and Miss Clairmont was only one and twenty, a tall, imperial beauty, with dewy black eyes, a skin as fresh as damask roses, and dark brown hair coiled in shining bands at the back of her head. She had just graduated from Medfield medical university, and had taken out her diploma as an M. D.

'And only think of it,' said Aunt Jo, pursting into tears of vexation and dis-pointment, 'that she must needs go and uin all her prospects by getting engaged Harry Marlow.

GOV. LONG.

It has been the opinion of this paper all the time that Gov. Long would continue at the head of the State govern ment another year at least. Now we are certain of it. In an interview with a are certain of it. In an interview with a Herald reporter last Saturday the Governor defined his position thus:

"My position," said he, "is at present a peculiar one. I do not feel called upon to say, definitely, that I will under no circumstances accept the governorship; nor do I think it timely to make a similar statement regarding the congressional nomination, or the position of United States senator. What I say is, that if the people, through the conventions, should see fit to place me in nomination for Governor or congressman, or if the Legislature should elect me to the national Senate, I would accept."

Farther on in the interview he says;

on in the interview he says; "I think Mr. Harris will be renominated and re-elected;" and concerning the Sen-atorship, which the newspapers have been saying he had his eye on, he remarks: "I see no reason why Mr. Hoar should not be returned." him to spend an occasional day at.

Congress in the Second District; that he week. quite ready to enter the contest at in the Senate; and that he will renomination for the Executive Chair. Having thus signified his willing ness to serve another year the people advice. re-elect him.
d besides, this effectually disposes of Mr. Noyes, Mr. Bishop and a score of others who had hopes of stepping into Governor Long's shoes this fall.

Merely to show how honest men may differ in their opinions we give the following from the last issues of two of our highly esteemed contemporaries respecting one of the Congressional candidates in this district:

Childs suffered a heavy (for him) loss in postage stamps. Not many days ago the attention of Hon. S. Z. Bowman was called to this case of hardship, and with his wonted promptness assurances come will be speedily adjusted. the matter His prompt attention to all cases, without a lot of "red tape," has made Mr. Bowman hosts of warm friends among that class who are the great majority of the 5th District,—men who care for re-sults more than mere show—Arlington

We beg leave to differ with the Advocate, for Mr. Bowman does not always give his "prompt attention" to the claims of his constituents—unless it so happens that Hon. S. Z. believes that he can add to his popularity by so doing. The gentleman possibly has a right to advocate what he pleases, but when he ignores the claim of over 400 people and with a single individual, who sought his presence for the purpose, what construction can be placed upon his action other than that he wished—

They enjoyed it very much. as possibly may be his prerogative—to favor the persons who would be likely to give him most votes! Mr. Bownan may be as good as the average congressmen - we never have heard anything more claimed for him-but the people of the Fifth District desire a man better than the average and one who is not too anxious retained in office.- Waltha civil service reform paper. It says: "Campaigns cannot be carried on without money, and where shall the managers look for it except among those who are indebted to the party for their living?" When the Republican party came into power it had no office-holders to assess, and its triumph was due solely to the justice of its cause, which commended itself to the majority of voters. Such ought to be the case now. If office-holders are chosen just to give them a "living," or if they don't earn the salary paid, they ought to be turned out. It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for pre-serving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

Then Priscilla whispered to Reubin:

'How can you have a man for a father-in-law who has been guilty of such missidemeanor?'

And Reubin whispered back:

'You can't shirk out of your hard boiled eggs and an apple pie. When Diver returned a bill for $3.95 for the transfer of tomatoes, salmou. He took a rest for a few minutes and then darnk three bottles of Seoth ale in succession, after which has been guilty of such missidemeanor?'

And Reubin whispered to Reubin: for a boy to hear another one throw dirt on any one's father, and not double up your fists and go at him. But don't want to have you think I'm going to be a bad one, and I'll try my best to keep in, even if they do talk about 'peas.' I don't see, though, what boys want to tell lies about you for.

'It isn't a lie, my son. It is true.

John looked aghast.

had separated from the milk, and had resolved itself into goldenhued particles, which, by a faithful manipulation of the dasher, would soon collect into that most delicious of all dairy products—butter. But the rosy-cheeked urchin's distressed appeal for help must not be disregarded. Her third daughter, Priscilla, a comely maden of eighteen, was standing by the kitchen table—her round white arms bare almost to the shoulders, as she beat away energetically at the yellow yolks of the eggs before adding the necessary ingredients—flour, sugar, and butter,—of which her 'gold cake' was to be composed.

Tris, do run and see what that boy is up to now; I do declare he bothers the life a-most out of me with his pranks, and if he's taken to fighting. I'm sure he'll be the death of me!'

Priscilla's red lips parted in a smile as she set down her dish.

'You are as young looking as I am; that don't look much like dying, mother; and I daresay, if Johnny's been fighting, he's had sufficient provocation. For he's as sunny-tempered, good-natured a boy as you'd find in a day's travel.'

Her mother's eyes followed the trim, lithe, girlish figure with a look of pride as Priscilla started on her errand.

As she spoke the busy hands kept pace with her words, and soon the compact yellow mass was in the big wooden butter-bowl, and was being carefully salted before it was carried into the spring house, to get thoroughly cooled before it was worked free from the least possible suspicion of butter-milk.

While Mrs. Chase was doing this Sally caught up the dish Priscilla had left, and commenced beating its contents so vigorously that by the time her sister had returned it was one mass of foaming froth.

Captain Aquila Chase was a finelybuilt, stalwart man, looking the profession he followed so perfectly that it needed only a glance to tell one that he had always been a sailor. All other things were for the moment forgotten as wife and children gave him a loving welcome; so John's affairs, for the time, were left in a state of quiessence. But the matter came up again. In those good old days, a father who did not govern his children, and, if need be, punish them, would not have been considered fit to be the head of a family. So John roceived a serious admonition, and promised not to again 'disturb the 'West and you was a man—I can't call him a neighbor—who was strolling about in the fields, and he saw the Captain picking peas, and went and made a complaint against him that he was breaking the Sabbath.'

Wasn't he a mean one?' said Johnny, indignantly.

Wo'd have foughted him, would't 'oo, Donny?' chirped his baby brother, and John sank at once into silence at this sally from the little one of the flock.

Then Priscilla whispered to Reubin:

A laugh ran around the circle at this sally from the little one of the flock.

Mesers, Editors :—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of tynn, Mass, who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is scalously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life study, and is obliged to keep str lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a meldient for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am astisfaed of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorthon, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequents spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headnohes, Narvous Prostration, General Deblity, Sleephessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the fennale system.

It costs only it, per bottle or six for §5, and is sold by druggeists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing thrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Compaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show.

The remarkable results in a disease so universal and with such a variety of characteristics as Catarrh, prove how effectually Hood's Sarsaparilla acting through the blood, reaches every part of the humar system. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with pride to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered upon the hearts of thousands of people it has cured of catarrh.

escape the penalties which punishes the deserver. The law which punishes the poor, weak slave of the cup for overing dulgence is a barbarity at the best and has no more right on the statute book than though its provisions were made for the insane. It is not consistant with Christian charity, and officers cannot be too lenient in dealing with those who have been robbed of their reason by the poison which they buy at licensed bars and unlicensed places in the town.

It must be clear to every one with this eyes open that inebriety is on the imagerees here. More intoxicated persons are seen on the streets than formerly. There can be no doubt either that a share, perhaps a large share, of the run.

secret, unlicensed holes, though the licensed places sell enough of it, heaven knows! At anyrate, it is sold, and drank, and men are going to wreck and ruin continually.

What shall be done? Are our police doing their duty? We cannot answers this question, because we do not known. Conversation with them taken in connection with the characters they bear would force an affirmative reply. They complain that they receive no support or moral backing from any quarter, without which raids on the rum sellers cannot be successful. The exsellers cannot be successful. The extreme difficulty in obtaining testimon that will convict is well understood by all. In this respect we regard the Massachusetts laws defective. Too much is required under them for the prosecution to make a prima facie case, and to get evidence to convict is in a majority of sales next to impossible.

But whether the officers are doing their duty or not, and this we leave to their ciences, it is evident to our mind their bearings. We hear too that they are increasing numerically and in influence. This is well—it is encouraging. But the effect of it all on the rum traffic is exceedingly small. While meettraffic is exceedingly small. While meetings and talking at meetings are very good, something more is needed to lessen the sale and consumption of rum in our midst. More effective weapons must to samploved if the enemy is to be cripative dependence of the re-election of Gov. Long, and that when the time comes he will have a very strong and cordial invitation to continue his able and every way admirable administration of State affairs pled and deprived of some of his power to slay the best of humanity.

We have churches where good preaching is heard; meetings where souls are re freshed and strengthened; missionary se cieties which send a great deal of mone, abroad for the benefit of the heathen. Thi too is very good. The world would hardly be worth living in if religion, ministers and churches were not in it. But are the churches as bodies, the ministers, and the members individually. Joing the best and all they can to remedy the evil of intemperance by forcing the rum-sellers to do their business strictly in accordance with the law? Are they giving any money to the cause; encou aging and helping the officers?

Now, suppose the temperance societies, the churches, the Y. M. C. A., and all good, honest, earnest temperance people besides should go to work and combi for active, aggressive, effective warfare? Suppose they should pool their issues, so to speak, and unite for a temperance revival here in Woburn? Suppose they should start a series of meetings to be held every night, and everybody should determine to not only enlist but to go into the work as earnestly, fearlessly and resolutely as he bes into his business or his religion hat do you think the result would be

A public sentiment and feeling before which the enemy could not stand Confronted by such a host they would lay down their arms at once. Before the money which this host would gather for prosecutions, and the pure moral atmosphere which they would create, the illegal traffic would fall to the ground, and a better state of things would soon be brought about among the licensed venders

Do you say that the better element in year. Woburn society is powerless in the face of rum and its sellers? You can't do anything to stay the tide of intemperance that sweeps over our fair town? You can't compel law-breakers to stop in their career? Can't unite in one solid, invincible column and rout the enemy, drive him from his strongholds, and crush him out? Well, you can't unless a different kind of warfare is adopted from that which has heretofore of late been carried on.

ANOTHER NEW CANDIDATE.

Right in the height of the heated term, with "dog days" upon us in full force, steps forward another candidate for popular favor and solicits consideration of his claims to represent the old-new Fifth District in Congress. We can see no reason for z change; but if one is to be made, the name presented by the city of Cambridge is more worthy of consideration than any we have heard in connection with the office.

The Hon. James A. Fox, the present mayor of the city, is the candidate that Cambridge presents to the Republican voters of the new 5th District and his claims for consideration may be oriefly outlined as follows:—"He is a gentleman of a clean recyed; has an excellent standing wherever anown; has had large legislative experience. He was a member of the House of Representatives in 1867 and 1868, and in the Senate in 1870 and 1871 and occupied very prominent positions upon the committees of the two houses. He has been twice elected mayor of Cambridge, and each time without

THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE.

Nothing is being done in this town.

Nothing is being done in this town that we are aware of towards the suppression of the illegal sale of intoxicating drinks, or to regulate it under the licenses granted. The court records show that prosecutions are principally confined to the unfortunate victims of the dealers' greed, while the real sinners, the dealers themselves, are allowed to escape the penalties which they justly deserve. The law which punishes the poor, weak slave of the cup for overing the dealers of the court of the control of the constituency has been to the moral them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not provide them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not the provide them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not the provide them; and we will not think the moral them; and we will not them; and we will not them; and we will not the provide them; and we will not them; and we will no

By courtesy of the Board of Assessors per hand of Mr. Clerk Hill, we are en abled to lay before our readers some in teresting statistics respecting our town and its affairs. It will be seen that the population of the town has increased 306 in the last year, and the present figures reach within 241 of the requisite number of inhabitants to entitle the town to a city charter. The valuation in the aggre-gate has fallen off somewhat from well understood causes. The new mortgage law makes an increase in the rate of taxa-

The Water Board told our people that less water must be used on the lawns and in the fountains else there might after a while be a famine of the same. Over at Arlington water for wetting down lawns and use in fountains was forbidden, but I believe that extreme of economy was not necessary here, and no formal order was passed by the Board-simply a request. That is the way it was told me.

FIRST WEEK (1st to 14th.) The month enters on a Tuesday, which, being a favorable day of the week, will probably give generally warm and plesant weather. After this we would place the following conditions as the probable order: Pleasant weather with cool evenings and nights, waxing to warm and sultry weather, with storms and showers towards the close of week (first seven days.)

SECOND WEEK, 7th TO 14th. warm, evenings and nights pleasantly cool. Showery and sultry with some heavy rains about the 12th and 13th.

THIRD WEEK, 14th to 21st. Cooler weather generally first portion of the week, with cool to cold evenings and nights. Hail, rain and wind storms on or about the 17th and 18th. Nights frosty. Severe storms in Virginia through tobacco belt about middle of month or shortly after. Frosts through New York state this week.

Heat again, and sultriness with scattered towards and after the 25th. Storms on and along North Atlantic coast between 25th and 28th, followed by wet weather.

CLOSE OF MONTH, 28th TO 31st. Generally cloudy and cooler weather with rain in western and eastern sections of country. Nights cool to cold and frosty Suspicious as he was of the new hands integrity and ability, he was agreeably disappointed. Connor worked hard and actually learned fast. At the end of the week he was engaged permanently, and soon was the best workman in the shop.

He was a great talker, but not fond of drink or wasting money. As his wages grew he hoarded every penny, and wore the same shabby clythes in which he made his first appearance. "Beer costs money," he said one day, "and ivery cint I spind puts off the bringing Nora and Jamesy over; and as for clothes, them I have must do me—betther no coat to me back than no wife and for the betther no coat to me back than no wife and betther no coat to me back than no wife and betther no coat to me back than no wife and better no coat to me back than no wife and better no coat to me back than no wife and the betther no coat to me back than no wife and the bringing has a coat of the same than the normal part of gilt vases which a pedler brought in his basket to the shop, and presented them to Connor from his Nora's mantle-piece. And here was the bot, and here was taken ill also; very suddenly. She grew worse fast. In the morning she called me control to the shop, and returned it whenever it was in his power, and the days of the bringing Nora and Jamesy over; and as for clothes, them I have must do me—betther no coat to me back than no wife and hour she was well and so was the boy, and might the Lord bring them safely to each other's arms

It was slow work, but he kept at it all the same. Other men, thoughtless and full of fun, tried to make him drink—made a jest of his saving habits, coaxed him to accompany them to places of amusement or to share in their Sunday frolics. All in vain. Connor liked beer, liked fun, liked companionship; but he would not delay that long looked-for bringing of Nora over, and long looked-for bringing looked-for bringing of Nora over, and long looked-for bringing looked-for long looked-for bringing of Nora over, and was not "mane enough" to accept favors of others. HON, FRANCIS B. HAYES.

A long letter appeared in the last Sunday Herald in praise of the gentleman whose name graces the head of this notice and in support of his candidact for Congress from this District. It was a very well written letter indeed, evidently prepared with a good deal care, and, considering its object, quite free from sickening laudation and pane gyrical hifalutin. The introductory para graphs of the letter treat of the ancestry of Mr. Hayes, of which, it is made plain he has no reason to be ashamed. That is a strong point in his favor, more particularly as his lineage is traced back nearly two hundred and fifty years. Not many of us could stand that amount o overhauling of our family records with out finding at least one black sheep among its pages.

Then follow biography, railroad affairs pointies, agriculture, and other interest ing topics, in the treatment of which the writer is singularly edifying. Indepen dently of its aim and object the letter in

A Plea For the Unfortunate.

Riding recently round about our time-phored toy,n, we became somewhat inflated with local pride. The public spirit apparent in our highways, and the private interests of our by-ways have a soothing effect upon tense fibres and over-worked nerves. The summer sun tints bring our few fine residerices (would they were more) into alto relievo, and the less pretentious homes universally and unmistakably bespeak the thrift of the owners and the quiet peace of the

But while these self-gratulations are inensely comforting, an occasional pale face in the throng makes the mute appeal to us: 'Is it only of yourselves and your acres you think, while Desolation sits at my door?" this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

NOT FULLY RIPE.

The sprightly Record of that town makes the following reply to the JOURNAL'S charge that though Waltham has population enough it lacks the pluck to apply for a city charter:

apply for a city charter:

We are glad to know what the reason is, for we supposed that Waltham had a sufficient number of inhabitants to become a city, and is good to know whyshe won't be one, even if it is because we haven't the pluck. We trust that some of our conservative, sleepy-headed people will take note of the reputation the town is acquiring. But it isn't because we haven't the "pluck" that Waltham doesn't become a city, but because we are not fully "ripe" yet for such a thing, and after the legislature has had a little more experience at city-making and when Waltham gets a littlarger, we will show you one of the model cities, Mr. JOURNAL. Evidence is rapidly accumulating that a change must soon be made and tie safe to say that it will come within a few years—mean-while let's recuperate our "pluck."

LONG FOR CONGRESS.

The retirement of Mr. Harris in th nd District leaves the coast entirely Second District leaves the coast entirely clear for Gov. Long, who, there can be no doubt, will be nominated by accla-mation for the seat in Congress so long kept warm by the distinguished gentleman who has had his fill of public life and now gracefully retires in favor of somebody else. From all accounts there will be no opposition to him. Just what kind of a derrick was put up to hoist Mr. Harris out of the fight and who raised and handled it are matters with which the general public have nothing to which the general public have nothing to do, and in which they are not particu-larly interested. This move on the politi-cal checkerboard in the Second District puts a different complexion on th er question and revives booms that hought to be defunct.

THOSE DELEGATES.

Somebody wrote to the Herald lately that Cambridge would throw a solid vote in the Congressional convention for Mr. Fox. The Chroniele of that city says the statement is not true. It, with the other statement is not true. It, with the other Cambridge papers, claims that Mr. Hayes will have the whole delegation. If they are right about it Mr. Hayes ought to third of the members of the nominating convention. The four Boston wards will town, Belmont, Lexington and Ward 25 of Boston would give it to him. Now, if Mr. Hayes is the man we all take him to be it would seem as though he ought to pull through easy enough.

FOR INSTANCE, ETC.

Go ahead, enterprising Woburn! Waltham may lack your enterprise in some things, particularly the easy and rapid way you let your population, young and old, slip out of your hands. For instance, in the same paper in which we find the above is recorded nine deaths, from August 1st to the 9th. It is to be hoped that no violence is done in this respect for the sake of placing the town, in the rate of mortality, by the side of our largest cities. In another matter is Woburn ahead, in pluckily raising her rate of assessment to $20.—Waltham Free Press.

crease in population! And besides, deaths don't count, anyway. As for the increase of tax rate, that's all right—we have improvements to show for it.

LINEAGE, ETC.

Referring to a lengthy newspaper article, eulogistic of would-be congressman, Francis B. Hayes, the Woburn Jouinal admits that it is a strong point in Hayes's favor that his lineage is traced back 250 years without finding a black sheep in the flock. The Jouinal, however, still blows for Hayden of Woburn, who, by the way, is a good deal more of a man than the average republican office seeker of this year of our Lord, 1882.—Boston Post.

The principal error in the above may be found in the words, "still blows." The JOURNAL isn't blowing this season

Some of the newspapers in the Sixth District are getting fired up on Congressional affairs. We shouldn't be at all surprised if they should go to calling each other hard names pretty soon.—WODURN JOURNAL

MONEY AND LEARNING.
The JOURNAL said that somebody in the Sixth District was trying to beat
Mr. Lodge for Congress because he knows something and has a bank account. To which the Malden City Press replies:

Yes and we should think somebody was trying to beat Mayor Converse for the same reasons. There is no use in making this a campaign of prejudice.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

The Hingham Journal, published at the home of Gov. Long, says he is not and will not be a candidate for re-election. Of course he is not a candidate in the e in which the word is commonly used; but suppose the convention nomi-nates him, as it probably will, he won't decline to stand will he, Mr. Journal!

The Sweet Girl Graduate

SHE VUSITS THE HORSE REPORTER, WHO TELLS HER HOW TO WRITE AN ESSAY.

"I would like to see an editor," said a lady of rather prepossessing appearance, as she opened the door of the editorial room yesterday afternoon and glanced furtively into the 2partment. "That is not a particularly herculean task, miss," said the horse reporter. The Tribune has now on draught almost any brand of editorial thought that you can call for," and the adherent of Iroquois smiled a bland 2:104 smile, which seemed to reassure the young lady amaz

"Well," said the young lady, "I am going to graduate next week, and mamma said that perhaps if I read my essay to some editor he would point out any little defects in it and show how they should be remedied." "Mamma told you that, did she?"
"Yes, sir."

"Your maternal ancestor," said the horse reporter, "is evidently a person of great mental fertility. She could not by any pointer. What is the title of your essay?

MAYOR FOX'S CANDIDACY.

The last Sunday issue of the Boston Herald contained an elaborate article from a correspondent in support of the candidacy of Mayor Fox of Cambridge for Congress. It was a lengthy letter, divided into heads like old fashioned sermons, each head devoted to a prompnent virtue in Mr. Fox's character, or a strong point in his genealogy.

Electioneering documents run strongly to biography in the Fifth District this to biography in the Fifth District this season, a description of composition that calculated to furnish important information that would not, but for political campaigns, be obtainable by the public. We did not suppose it was necessary, however, for gentlemen privi-ledged to dwell in the social atmosphere of Beacon Hill, as Messrs. Hayes, Fox and perhaps Bowman, are to resort to biographies, or rather, a public parading of ancestry, to gain political advantages the privilege itself presupposing blood sufficiently blue and pure for all ordi-nary and most of the extraordinary purof life in the upper stories.

Mr. Fox's biographer makes out a good case for his subject. The present popular and highly efficient Mayor of the city of Cambridge comes of good stock. He can point his forefinger to his fore-fathers with pride, and make the claim that he is thoroughbred. That is ex-cellent in an aspirant for Congressional honors so far as it goes.

Of course it cannot be expected that the Journal, whose candidate is E. D. HAYDEN, Esq., "first, last and all the time," should enthuse clean out of its boots over Mr. Fox, his ancestors, or his same time it must be admitted that he is a good deal of a man and gentleman Nobody doubts his ability to represent Fifth District in Congress with honand dignity. He is unquestionably person of parts, and everybody says he is honest from centre to circumference

Mayor Fox shows an honorable mili tary record, having served in the Wat of the Rebellion gallantly, and is very popular with the survivors of those who took part in that great contest for the life of the Nation. That is in his favor, but how many delegates it will secure him in the convention we will not under take to say, and delegates are what tell. He is a Free Mason too of high degree, but that don't count much in politics

Mr. Fox is a lawyer by profession, but we infer from a careful perusal of his biography that, like Mr. Hayes, he does not depend on his practice in law courts for means to live on, but, contrariwise, is a gentleman of "elegant leisure," with a plenty of money, and all that nice sort

He is a civil service reformer from the Cambridge standpoint, which does not strongly recommend him to the support of the Journal, but may possibly give him some strength wherever the Harvard influence is felt. Possibly, however, if desired, he might modify his notions on this subject to conform to the sentiment that prevails in this latitude.

On the whole, we look on Mayor Fox as a worthy gentleman, possessing fine abilities, is reliable, living on a social plane a little too elevated for common sort of people, rich, and would make a very respectable Representative of the Fifth District in Congress.

GOOD WORDS FOR HAYES.

Woburn people and those of the neigh borhood want to know of course how goes the battle, so the JOURNAL takes it upon itself, being a paper of larger and more general circulation than any other hereabouts, to reproduce opinions from exchanges in the District and thus keep its army of intelligent readers posted on the Congressional contest. The follow-ing is from the Cambridge Tribune, a staid, sober-sided, and very reliable journal, and a fair representative of public sentiment in the University city: A close canvass of the Fifth District the past week brings assured evidences that Hon. Francis B. Hayes will be the Republican nominee for Congress. The people desire a man who will not vote away money without good and sufficient cause, and can be interviewed by the humblest voter in the ranks—such a man is Mr. Hayes. The sending of such men to Congress mean appropriations that will bear investigation, and a thorough and just understanding of all that pertains to the maintenance of honest government. He is the man for the people.

ence among the intelligent people of that burgh. Its desire to sec an "expression of opinion among exchanges," etc., is quite childlike and bland, and indicative of an ingenuousness truly refreshing:

The chances for the nomination of the Hon. F. B. Hayes in the fifth district are certainly brighter and the feeling seems to be gaining ground that Bowman is not just the man that is wanted. We would like to see an honest and candid expression of opinion among our exchanges in the fifth district as to whether Mr. Bowman or Mr. Hayes is best suited to represent the district.

The Cambridge Chronicle, which is one of Mr. Hayes's bowers—which one we prefer not to say—and a perfect enthusi-ast in the pleasing, and we hope profitaable, business of booming him, has this

The sketch of Hon. Francis B. Hayes, published in the Boston Sunday Herald of Aug. 13th has been widely commented upon by the press of the Fifth Congressional District and elsewhere, and has done much to awaken the public to the fact that Mr. Hayes is exactly the candidate they need with which to beat the Bowman party.

Our readers will perceive that this all comes from over Cambridge way; and will please bear in mind that papers Somerville-ward are equally enthusiastic for Mr. Bowman, and certain of his nom-

A Bald-Headed Man Buying Drugs.

There are two mad men in Milwaukee One is a baid-headed man and the other is a druggist. The bald head told a doctor that his hair was falling out, and asked him if he didn't know something that would stop t. The doctor said he would fix him, so he wrote out a prescription, which was as woburn, follows: Chloride of sodium, once ounce: aqua pura, eight ounces. Shake well and ab on the scalp every morning.

The bald man went to a druggist and had SALT RHEUM. the prescription put up, paying $1 for it. He asked the druggist if he wasn't a little high, but felt ashamed when the druggist asked him if he knew how much aqua pura cost a gallon. He said he didn't, but supposed it came high. The druggist told him aqua pura was one of the most penetrating rugs in the store, and as for chloride of sodium, there was nothing like it, and the war in Peru had sent it up kiting. He said if the trouble in Chili kept on there was no knowing how high it would be.
The bald head used the medicine, and felt as though it was doing him good. His wife noticed little new hairs coming out and he felt good, so when the stuff was gone he took the bottle to the store and had it filled

The chap who filled it this time was another chap, and when the bald-headed man threw down a dollar the druggist said: "Oh, never mind; we won't charge you anything for that." The bald man asked how that was, when the druggist said: "Why, it's only salt and water, anyway.

The salt is only two cents a pound, and the water is pretty cheap this year."

The bald man gave one *gasp and said:

"I paid $1 for filling that bottle before, and I want my money back. It's a bald-headed swindle. I thought that Peruvian story didn't look plausible." The druggist gave the man a box of cigars be keep still about it.—Milwaukee Sun.

Advice to Consumptives.

On the appearance of the first symptoms s general debility, loss of appetite, pallor, chilly sensations, followed by sweats and cough, prompt measures of relief should be taken. Consumption is scrofulous disease of the lungs; therefore use the great anti-scrofulous or blood-purifier and strength-restorer, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Superior to Cod liver oil as a nutritive, and unsurpassed as a pectorial. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, and kindred affections it has no equal. Sold by druggist. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

If Woburn ever furnished a member of he Board of County Commissioners it was so long ago that nobody now in active life remembers anything about it. The JOURNAL certainly cannot call to mind that a seat on the Board was ever filled by a Woburn man. This lack of recognition by the rest of the county has recognition by the rest of the county and not been due to an absence of good material in the Republican party here, but rather to a commendable modesty in the background and that has kept it in the background and prevented our people making demands for places which of right belonged to demands

The time has come, however, when we think it proper and advisable that the Republicans of Woburn should be heard. They have been content heretofore to be classed with the rank and file and there to work for the success of the party. In point of population our town is one of the most important in the county—almost large enough for a city, which it will doubtless become at an early day. It casts a large Republican vote, on which score it is entitled to honorable recognition by other towns, and will, we believe, receive it at the approaching sioners to elect this fall. The expiration of the term of one member of the Board leaves a vacancy, and the death of another member causes a second. Lo-cality, as well as the reasons above given, entitles Woburn to one of these places, and if we do not mistake the temper of the Republicans here an earnest request will be made of the convention to allow us to fill it. No valid quote: reason can be given why such a request should not be cheerfully granted, and no doubt exists in our mind as to its favorable reception, if properly preferred.

The name of E. Everett Thompson, Esq., is mentioned in connection with one of the vacant places on the Board—in fact, it is the only name heard here-and so far as we are informed the wish that he should become a candidate is general. Mr. Thompson has been Special County Commissioner for four years, and though the office is in the main ornamental rather than useful, he has had in that time considerable practical experience on the Board, which would be found of service in case of his election. Civil Service Reform too demands his promotion, a consideration that ought to have som weight in the selection of candidates.

Of Mr. Thompson's fitness for a seat on the Board it is unnecessary to speak. He is a man of affairs, and has in ous ways been engaged in public busi-ness for many years. Important public trusts have been confided to his care, and if he has ever made a failure in any of them the people have not found it out. At present he is Treasurer and Clerk of the Woburn Five Cents Savings Bank, a position which he has filled to capable man.

From information received it is safe to say that the Republicans of Woburn will send a delegation to the County Convention pledged to the nomination of Mr. Thompson for one of the vacancies of Mr. Thompson for one of the vacancies had be been safe to be a support of the Roard of County Commissioners, and has been been safe to Roard of County Commissioners, and has been safe to Roard of County Commissioners, and has been safe to Roard of County Commissioners, and has been safe to Roard of Mr. Thompson for one of the vacancies.

A column from our pencil devoted to the subject would fail to set forth the merits of Hon. S. Z. Bowman and his claims on the people of this District to a re-election so fairly, clearly and em-phatically as do these few lines from the Somerville Journal:

He went to Congress four years ago with a more outspoken newspaper on He went to Congress four years ago with a more outspoken newspaper opposition than any other man who has gone from our state in many years, but he has been so industrious in his official labors; so consistent, frank and decided in his adherence to his convictions through all phases of public onintions through all phases of public opinion; so kind and considerate in attention to all inquiries on the part of his constituents, so uniformly courteous in his association with his colleagues, so successful in winning the issues for which he has striven, that to-day he returns to his home respected by friend and foe alike, recognized as a man indefatigable in endeavor, uncorrupted, able and honorable.

CAUCUS. in another column of this paper it will be seen that the Republicans of Woburn will hold a caucus on next Monday evening. September 11th, at Republican Headquarters, 204 Main steat for the National preserved with the Almosti, let have wednesday for Toledo, Ohio, where she will visit her brother, Mr. James Melvin, for two or three weeks, and just been put in working order through the endeavors of our public-spirited fellow-country. This is a principle of Watertown, a well-known physiciru.

The names of the persons mentioned in the book are as follows:—Nathan Simonds, in Nahum Jennison, Capt. Fox. William Fox.

Taking it for granted that the above appeal was meant for the Journal, we occed to remark, that nothing has proceed to remark, that nothing has come within range of our visual organs for many a day that has so completely filled us with surprise. The idea that the Herald is on any side of any question, or that it is not on all sides of all questions, is so absurd that only emotions of pity are felt by us for the exceedingly verdant individual that enterceedingly verdant individual that enter tains it! And of all things, that so simple a question should be propounded by the intelligent and wideawake Mer-

The following from the columns of "our esteemed," etc, the Medford Mer-eary, shows how carelessly its editor skims over the heavy political products of its exchanges:

It appears that the Woburn Journal has gone back on Mr. Bowman and is leaning decidedly toward "the Lexington farmer." for whom heretofore it had no appreciation. Our Woburn contemporary figures out a victory for Mr. Hayes and says: "Now, if Mr. Hayes is the man we take him to be it would seem as though he ought to pull through easy enough." The Somerville Journal is the staff on which the present congressman leans.

TF We observe by the despatches from Maine that our journalistic successor, Charles H. Prescott, Esq., the able and enterprising editor and proprietor of the Biddeford Union and Journal, has been ominated by the Republicans for one the Representatives to the Legislature from that city. The perusal of the item gave us a deal of genuine pleasure, for Mr. Prescott is among the worthiest and most promising young men in Maine, a is destined in the near future to cut a prominent figure in the politics of that State. Here's hoping that he will be elected "by a rousing majority."

The Waltham Free Press is serene. Its faith in the nomination of Mr. Bow-man, its candidate for Congress, has no shade of doubt or fear about it. Such confidence and trust is refreshing. We quote:

Congressman Bowman's prospects for a re-nomination appear to be good from the fact that no very strong competition stands in his way. Of course no one can tell what a day may bring forth, but just at present the friends of Mr. Bowman have not much reason to despair.

Far be it from us to throw cold water on the hopes and expectations of Congressman Bowman or Mr. Hayes, but we can't help saying that there are signs in the sky which point unerringly towards the nomination of Mr. Hayden, and they are growing more numerous plainer, and more significant every day. Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for Hood's Sansararilla. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of Hood's Sansararilla demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. This alarming disease (which fortunately s not often fatal) is epidemic among childien attending the public schools, and usually manifests itself with the greatest virulence early in September.

Symptoms .- The patient, who went to bed over-night in perfect health, complains upon wakening of lassitude, loss of appetite and alarming pains in the head and throat. The symptoms are aggravated towards 8.30 A. M., and in a few minutes the disease reaches a crisis. Mental composure being restored by permission to remain from school, the patient shows signs of recovery his appetite returning, and by ten o'clock he is able to take gentle exercise on a cellarlapse, however, is to be expected immedi ately after dinner and before afternoon school, with the same symptoms that preluded the first attack, though severer in degree. To-wards two o'clock the patient is out of daner, but from time to time the disease is kely to recur.

Treatment.—Put the clock on an hour.
In severe cases apply stimulating embrocations of slipper or trunk-strap. Let nature not have its course.

LITTLE BY LITTLE.

Little by little the time goes by— Short if you sing througa it, long if you sigh; Little by little—an hour, a day, Gone with the years that have vanished away. Little by little the race is run, Trouble and waiting and toil are done.

Little by little the skies grow clear; Little by little the sun comes near; Little by little the days smile out Glader and brighter on pain and doubt; Little by little the seed we sow Into a beautiful yield will grow.

Little by little the world grows strong, Fighting the battle of Right and Wrong; Little by little the Wrong gives way, Little by little the Right has sway; Little by little all longing sonls Struggle up near the shiring goals.

had played the organ so long had suddenly died, and every person from the peasant to the king was wondering who could be found to fill his place. One bright Sabbath morn, as the sexton entered the church, he saw a stranger sitting at the crape-shrouded organ. He was a tall, graceful man, with a pale but strikingly handsome face, great black, melancholy eyes, and hair like a raven for gloss and color, sweeping in dark waves over his shoulders. He did not seem waves over his shoulders. He did not seem along the Rhine.

The pale lips of the princess parted, but were made happy by a royal marriage she could not speak-she was dumb with grief. Like one in a painful dream she saw e pale man sitting at the organ, and heard the melody which filled the vast edifice. Aye, full well she knew who he was, and Bitters.' why the instrument seemed breathing out the agony of a tortured soul.

When the service was over, and the royal party had left the cathedral, he stole away as mysteriously as he had come. He was not seen by the sexton until the vesper hour, and then he appeared in the organ loft and commenced his task. While he played, a veiled figure glided in and knelt near the shrine. There she knelt until the orshippers dispersed, when the touched her on the shoulder and said:

" Madam, every one has gone except you and me, and I wish to close the door.

The sexton drew back into a shady niche and listened. The mysterious organist still kept his place, but his head was bowed upon the instrument, and he could not see the lone devotee. At length she arose from the asie, and moving to the organ-loft, paused before the musician:

BOWMAN WINS.

An interview with a prominent citizen of Somerville some ten days since prepared us for this result. The Somer-ville primaries clinched the nail, since which we have had no other thought than that Mr. Bowman would be the ig candidate. Of course, as a friend and supporter of Mr. Hayden, the JOURNAL has derived but little satisfaction from this enforced conclusion, but it is to some extent a comfort to reflect on the fact that the successful gentle-man has been all along our second

The failure of Mr. Hayes, who, every body admits, is a man of sterling worth and would make a first class Congress-man, is a surprise to those who have not taken particular note of the progress of the campaign. To those who have it is no surprise at all. Inefficient engineers conducted his campaign—it has been badly

As the JOURNAL has said more than once, Mayor Fox was not really in the fight. A few injudicious friends and some men who ached to handle his loose some men win active to handle his lose change, made him believe he was a prominent candidate, but everybody else knew he was not. So far he has not figured in the primaries.

Only in certain contingencies would

Mr. Hayden allow his name to be used in connection with the business. He would not consent to be regarded as a candidate, and has not appeared in the contest. Of course the Woburn delegates propose to stick to him so long as a hope remains, but it must be confessed that his prospects for the nomination are not as brilliant as we wish they were.

Last Monday the Fusionists of Maine met their Waterloo. The result was a surprise to both sides, for it was ex-pected the contest would be very close, with the chances pretty evenly divided. Nobody looked for more than a few hundred plurality for either candidate, and a majority for neither. But they miscalculated the real strength of Re publicanism in the State, hence the sur

The plurality of Robie, the Republicar candidate for Governor, was about 10,000, and majority nearly 5,000: the four Republican candidates for Congress were handsomely elected: the House and Senate will be largely Republican; and all the counties in the State but two were carried against the Fusionists. The election will give the Republicans a full set of State officers, a United States Senator, to be elected next winter, a full essional delegation, and the ap-ment of nearly a full Supreme

The Fusionists worked hard, had all money they wanted, and felt certain vinning the election; but their time had come, and they were buried beyond all hope of resurrection last Monday. The Republicans have got the old State of Maine again, and they will keep it.

THE STAR ROUTE TRIAL.

The trial of the Star Route rogues, i rogues they are, ended on Monday last in a grand fizzle. It has been in pro-gress many a weary week, and its con-clusion is impotent indeed. After being out hours the jury brought in a verdict of guilty as to Rerdell and Miner, ac-quitted Turner, and couldn't agree as to the rest of the indicted persons-Brady, Dorsey, and others. If there was really a conspiracy to defraud the government the least guilty were condemned, and the major conspirators—the men who planned the work and got the largest share of the profits—were virtually let go. In all probability this is the last of the Star Route business that the people or courts will hear about.

THE EGYPTIAN WAR.

Gen. Wolseley's advance movement or Wednesday was crowned by a brilliant victory and complete rout of Arabi's The rebet chief was taken com pletely by surprise and would have been taken prisoner as well but for his lucky escape by rail. On Republicans of Massachusetts," much of it the name of each member of Legislature is given with his standing on the temperance question plainly designated, which we should think would have a tendency to make some of them howl. Mr. Faxon's idea of the duty of temperance men is to work inside the Republican party, instead of through a separate organization, and to this end has he written and printed his broadside. Whether his plan is the correct one or not, nobody can question his honesty, or that he is doing a world of good for

T A delegation of first rate workers were selected on Monday evening by the Woburn Republicans for the County Convention. They are just the men to manage Mr. Everett Thompson's case and to make a success of it. We are satisfied in our own mind that the convention will not be able to find a better on than Mr. Thompson for County commissioner, a fact which the Woburn delegates will have no trouble in con-vincing it of. That they will do all that lies in their power to secure his nomination we have no doubt, and it is our belief that they will win.

Bow-man has secured a sufficient number of delegates to the Congressional conven-tion to nominate him on the first formal nomination, let alone his other qualities.

> The signs of the times point directly to the nomination of Hon. Benjamin F. Butler for Governor by the Democracy of this State. A marked change has taken place in the Democratic feeling toward Mr. Butler since his last run for the office, and it is said that even the "nice" portion of the party would hail his candidacy with pleasure. the most casual observer could see that it was composed largely of the friends of Mr. Lodge, and that when the vote should be taken they would carry all before them. They probably represented the majority of sentiment of the town. The result was a clean choice of Lodge delegates in the persons of Samuel J. Elder and Henry C. Miller, both strong friends and supporters of that gentleman. Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, it is believed that Mr. Edwin Robinson, who was chosen last Friday evening, will not so far disregard the wishes of his constituents as to vote against Mr. Lodge in the convention, although his preference settles on another candidate.

"Yes, sir," resumed the Dakota man, a around a little table; "yes, sir, we do things on rather a sizable scale. I've seen a man on one of our big farms start out in the spring and plough a furrow until fall.
Then he turned round and harvested back. We have some big farms up there, gentle men. A friend of mine owned one or recorded on the other. You see it was laid off in counties." There was a murmur of astonishment, and the Dakota man continued: "I got a letter from a man who lives in my orchard, and it had been three weeks getting to the dwelling house, al-though it had travelled day and night." "Distances are pretty wide up there, ain't they?" inquired one. "Reasonably, reasonably," inquired the Dakota man. "Aml the worst of it is it breaks up families so. Two years ago I saw a whole family prostrated with grief. Women yelling, children howling and dors barking. One of memory and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention was held at Worcester on last Wednesday It was a full one, but not very lively There had been something of a contest over the election of delegates for Crapo and Bishop, but there was very little interest taken outside the politicians. The same feeling prevailed to a large extent in the convention, hence the lack of stirring scenes and particular concern in it. The ticket is a good one, and more than a match for Gen. Butler and party. Indeed, a much weaker one uld have been strong enough to whale the General out of his boots. This is it:

BUTLER NOMINATED.

The Democrats of Massachusetts held Tuesday. According to the reports it was a very large, enthusiastic and har-monious one. Every part of the Com-monwealth was represented by promi-nent members of the party, and many distinguished leaders were at the head-quarters at the Parker House the night before, and attended the convention.

As everybody anticipated, Hon. Benjamin F. Butler was the choice of the con vention for Governor. On motion of his faithful friend, Mr. Tarbox, he was nominated by acclamation, and will, if he ac cepts, become once more the standardbearer of the Massachusetts Democracy in a campaign for the control of the State. He will make a tough fight and give the Republicans their hands full.

The Congressional Committee have ned their call for the new Fifth Dis-tet Convention to be held on next Tuesday in Boston. The delegates are change in Copeland, Bowser & Co.'s card in he will be nominated on the first ballot -perhaps by acclamation-a style considerably in vogue this fall.

It is claimed by the Lodge men here that greatly off the track there will be a good deal of hair-pulling over it. As ought not to be the case there are factions here among the Republicans, who, politically, do not love each other, and when they cross swords in caucus assembled the presumption is very strong that the fur will fly, to be a little slangy about it. But a good man will be put up, you may be assured.

Harper's Magazine for October presents an unusual variety of contributions, every one of which must challenge the attention of a large class of readers. It is claimed by the Lodge men here that Mr. Robinson, the Frost delegate, will cash his vote, after the first, for the Nahant candidate. Perhaps so, and then again, perhaps not so.

It is thought that Mr. Sumner Richardson does not cherish the most friendly feelings towards Republican caucuses. In fact, I think he is a good deal disgusted with the way things are managed.

ALL KINDS OF PRINTING AT THE MJOURNAL OFFICE & LITERARY NOTICES.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for October is unisually brilliant, if we can say that of a magazine that is always exceptionally good. It has two colored patterns, a specialty with it, no other lady's book giving them at all: a very fine steel engraving, "The Wood-land Bath;" a beautifully colored steel fashon-plate, with the latest styles, among others, of wedding-dresses. There are, besides, some fifty wood-engravings of fashions, patterns in embroidery, etc., etc. The original and all first-rate. We not particularly "Nan's Masquerade," by the author of "The Second Life." But the article of the number, because so appropriate just now, when everybody is talking of Egypt, is one on " Cairo and the Thedive's Harem," illustrated with numerous spirited engra vings. We know no magizine that so com-pletely fulfils all the qualifications for a lady's book; and that is the reason, doubt-less, why "Peterson" has had such a long and enduring nopularity. The low price of this monthly is another thing to consider. It is but two pollars a year, much less than is asked for any other of equal merit. There is nothing "catch-penny" about it. To clubs the terms are still lower. Now is the time to begin getting up clubs for 1883. Specimens are sent, gratis, for this purpose. Address, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW for Octo per opens with an article on "The Coming Revolution," by H. M. Hyndman, the English radical leader, giving an instructive account of the agitation now on among the English working classes for a reconstruction leavors to point out the distinction between literature which is per se corrupting, that which is simply coarse. Dr. Henry Schliemann tells the interesting story of one year's "Discoveries at Troy." Senator John I. Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, treats of the rise and progress of the rule of "Political Bosses." Prof. George L. Vose, of the Massachusetts Institute of Techhology, conributes an article of exceptional value on Safety in Railway Travel;" Charles S. Sargent, of the Harvard College Arboretum, contributes an instructive essay on "The Protection of Forests. The Rr VIEW is sold by booksellers and newsdealers generally.

MR. BOWMAN NOMINATED.

The Republican Congressional convertion of Fifth District was held in We leyan Hall, Boston, last Tuesday. There were four candidates presented, namely: S. Z. Bowman, Francis B. Hayes, Ed-ward D. Hayden and Samuel L. Monta-gue. On the informal ballot Mr. Bowman gue. On the informal ballot Mr. Bowman had two majority, and on the first formal ballot he received four majority.

Judge Fox and Col. Higginson indulged in some antics over what is known as the Harvard College system of Civil Service Reform, but they failed to carry their impracticable points, or to impress the convention very favorably with their advocacy of a fanciful political read was a fanciful political transfer when the modern than the political transfer when the modern than the convention was a fanciful political transfer when the modern than the convention was a fanciful political transfer when the modern than the first formal transfer was a fanciful political transfer when the first formal transfer was a fanciful political transfer was a fanciful political transfer when the first formal transfer was a fanciful political transfer was creed. In a twenty minutes' speech Mayor Hodgkins of Somerville took the wind out of the sails of these gentlemen, and they subsided. The fact is, Mr. Bowman is as good a civil service re-former as the best of them, and is vastly more practical in his ideas of bringing about the much-desired and earnestly prayed-for political millenium.

Mr. Bowman was fairly and squarely nominated as we expected he would be. Our only regret is that it was not Mr. Hayden instead of Mr. Bowman. But the latter gentleman has made a good,

The nominee is a prominent and highly respected citizen of Stoneham, and an intelligent and successful man of affairs. His neighbors in the town were highly gratified over his success in the convention, which is a strong endorseion, which is a strong endorsement of his worth. Others besides the Thompson name have cherished a commendable pride in their for-mer distinguished citizen, Count Rumford, and have contributed generously towards preserving his memory, and the history of his extraordinary life. Among these we mention Hon. John Cummings because of the facts hereinafter mentioned.

Some days ago the following named ger tlemen received polite invitations from Mr. Cummings to meet and partake of a luncheon at his beautiful residence on the West Side, at 2 o'clock on last Tuesday afternoon, and cheerfully accepted the same: Hon. J.

R. Cutter, Librarian of the Woburn Public Library, and author of several local histories, Rev. Leander Thompson and Rev. Charles Anderson of North Woburn.

The luncheon was an elegant one, and the reception of the guests so cordial and warm by the host and his lady that no restraint was experienced by any, but all felt at home. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings entertain with a generous hand.

Seated around the well laden tables, Mr. Cummings announced the object of the meeting to be: "To gather up suitable menorials of Woburn's distinguished son, Benjamin Thompson, Count Rumford." To this paper, must be handed in as early as this point very interesting speeches were made at the tables and subsequently by Mr. last Tuesday.

After a pleasant and earnest discussion of plans for carrying out the object of the meeting, and entertaining speeches had been listened to, a committee, consisting of Hon. John Cummings, E. D. Hayden, Esq., Rev. Dr. Ellis, Hon. J. B. Walker, Rev. Leander Thompson, and Rev. Mr. Porter, was chosen "to collect memorials of Count Rumford, the same to be preserved in the Woburn Public Library, by permission of the Trustees; and to use their efforts to secure the publication of a popular edition of Dr. Ellis's 'Life of Count Rumford.'"

With this the very pleasant and important conference closed, and, in taking leave of the master and mistress of the luncheon the eminent gentlemen present as guests expressed themselves warmly on their kind 11th. The prospect for a large school is reception and generous treatment.

A copy of the Calais (Me.) Times, received a few days since, contains the oration in full of S. C. Small of Winchester, delivered at the Soldiers' Rennion held at that place on August 17th. It was an admirable production, and a credit to the head and heart of Mr. Small.

In stating that the second choice of Mr. Robinson, the Frost delegate, was Mr. Lodge the Star made a mistake. Mr. Robinson denies it in a letter. From what I have heard the Star was not far wrong, for it had been currently reported that Mr. R. would give Mr. Frost a complimentary ballot, and then go for Lodge.

It is now said that the Grammar school will open next Monday, October 2, but whether it will or not I am unable to state It certainly will not open on October 1, Sunday, as announced in the Star, and may not Monday, but the work seems to be nearly or quite completed, so far as an inexperienced person is able to judge.

I hear no more complaint about dry weather. Since I last wrote you it seems as though rain enough had fallen to make a flood, or at least a floodlet, and if there should be no more this fall nothing would suffer. Saturday afternoon it did seem as though the "flood gates of heaven" had been hoisted and the whole pondful came down at once. Makes muddy roads, but that is better than dust.

Many exentertaining one: "A Nap in a Cannon," s entertaining one: "A Rap in a Cannon," a tale of the Charlestown Navy Yard, "Cap-tain Scamparado," "The Stimpcetts' Sun-rise Party," and "Ralph's Club." Mr. Tal-bot's comedy, "No Questions Asked," is brought to a capital close, as are also "Wild Flower Papers." There is a romantic chap-ter of "The Trojan War," the serial by A Boy, and "Lost Among Savages," the Bor-nean Serial, by David Ker. Arthur Gilman's Dictionary paper is useful and enter-taining; and Edward Everett Hale, "the political editor of WIDE AWARE," sends from Spain a very clear explanation of the Egyptian question. The first of the set of Old Time Papers, appears in this number, called "A Suit of Homespun," and explains, with its fifteen illustrations, some of the homely processes of making woolen cloth at home in early days. As usual, there are many pleasant poems in this number. The Chautauqua Reading Course for the second year begins in this number, opening with "Little Biographies of Pleasant Authors for Young Folks." Prof. Sargent of Harvard College begins a series of Health and Strength papers for boys; Samuel Wells, a series "Through a Microscope;" A Boy, "A Boys Workshop;" and there is also a delightful chapter of "Anna Maria's Housekeeping," series, "Famous Trials," each of which is to make our young citizens familiar with some important principle in law. NEW BOOKS.

THE CHORAL CHOIR. By W. O. Perkins. Boston: Oliver Ditson & Co. Price $1.00.

The first book to reach us from the press singing classes and general choir use is the CHORAL CHOIR, compiled by Dr. W. O. Perkins, a man of wide experience in matters concerning music, and the author of a host of music books which have had a very genrous and extended circulation. This new book, then, bearing as it does upon its very face the distinguishing marks of its successful predecessors, will be accorded a "chartroducing some element of freshness into And in this new book of 300 pages are all season, if you will but take the trouble to send one dollar for a specimen copy and note its many excellencies in the way of ment and general adaptability of contents. Besides a half hundred spirited glees, there are over one hundred metrical tunes, as well as fifty and more anthems, chants and coruses, making a very choice selection of sacred and secular music, between which the book is quite evenly divided.
